We should write thank you cards for anything - be polite!

Pep Band Shirts:

- Jennifer Judd-McGee wants to help.
- It sounds like we like Lucas' design!
  - Something small on the front and the big logo on the back?
  - We have to run it past the Boosters
  - Run is past Jennifer Judd-McGee
- Mr. Remy used my design as scratch paper.
  - Now we're passing it around the room.

Lessons with Middle Schoolers

- Abby (Tremont) and Will (CE) emailed their schools.
  - Tremont's interested.

Cleanliness:

- The music room is clean!
  - The theatre is messy
  - Ben Hagle is announcing during band
  - Abby is telling first block of music study hall.

Lockers:

- People didn't do what we told them to - barely any people put their name on it
  - We need a spreadsheet - Breaux is making one
  - Priority lockers, then we assign them.
  - A lot of the instruments moved during Sing Day, and a lot of them stayed - who's are they?
  - Cables - Pierce thinks we need a lock box?
- We lost the door battle.
    - They're always going to be locked after school.
    - We can't be unaccompanied after school.
      - We weren't well behaved. If he's not there, we have to be in the cafeteria.
      - They want it aligned with sports - is it?
      - They thought it was too messy
  - Bronwyn thinks we need a new carpet
    - Have we ever had a new one?
    - Should we just clean it?

We have pep band today!

- Delaney thinks we should play for the individual gold tournament.

Jazz:

- There is drama in Jazz.
- "Things aren't fair."
- There's too much tension.
- IT'S FINE.
- "It's like Whiplash." -Zak Charette
- Drama in Show Choir lasted the whole season - we don't want that.
