The whole point of today's meeting is to decide on the president.
"In two more minutes, we'll pause and I'll tell you something." said Mr. Remy.

Two Minutes Later...

Mr. Remy's Ideas

- There are lots of people who used to be in music program - "the band graveyard." They're still loosely involved, but not really.
 - We need a list of those people, to three degrees:
 - The people who are out because of class conflicts
 - The graveyard
 - Don't know about the rotating schedule.
 - We need to bring them back. Make a list.
- We need a policy for people who never come to meetings.
